

[Courtesy Translation]

Table 3

Liberalization Measures under Telecommunications
(Positive List)<sup>158</sup>

Sectors or Sub-sectors	2. Communications services
	C. Telecommunications services
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Voice telephone services</li> <li>b. Packet-switched data transmission services</li> <li>c. Circuit-switched data transmission services</li> <li>d. Telex services</li> <li>e. Telegraph services</li> <li>f. Facsimile services</li> <li>g. Private leased circuit services</li> <li>h. Electronic mail services</li> <li>i. Voice mail services</li> <li>j. On-line information and data base retrieval services</li> <li>k. Electronic data interchange (EDI) services</li> <li>l. Enhanced/value-added facsimile services, including store and forward, store and retrieve</li> <li>m. Code and protocol conversion services</li> <li>n. On-line information and/or data processing (including transaction processing)</li> <li>o. Other (paging, teleconference, mobile maritime and air-to-ground communications, etc.)</li> </ul>
Specific commitments	1. To allow Macao service suppliers to set up joint ventures or wholly-owned enterprises to provide the <sup>158</sup> With respect to the modes of commercial presence and cross-border services of telecommunications services sector (sub-sector), the liberalization commitments by the Mainland to Macao service suppliers shall maintain the use of Positive List to set out the liberalization measures. Table 3 of Annex 1 of this Agreement covers all liberalization measures under the telecommunications services sector (sub-sector) in CEPA and its Supplements, and Guangdong Agreement.

	following telecommunications services within the Mainland. There is no restriction on the proportion of Macao capital in the shareholding<sup>159</sup>: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) Online data processing and transaction processing services (restricted to e-commerce business websites only);</li> <li>2) Multi-party communications services within the Mainland;</li> <li>3) Store and forward services;</li> <li>4) Call centre services;</li> <li>5) Internet access services (restricted to provide Internet access services to users);</li> <li>6) Content services (restricted to application stores only).</li> </ol> 2. To allow Macao service suppliers to set up joint venture enterprises to provide the following telecommunications services within the Mainland. The proportion of Macao capital in the shareholding should not exceed 50%<sup>160</sup>: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) Online data processing and transaction processing services (except e-commerce business websites);</li> <li>2) Mainland IP based Virtual Private Network Services;</li> <li>3) Internet data centre services;</li> <li>4) Internet access services (except providing Internet access services to users);</li> <li>5) Content services (except application stores).</li> </ol> 3. To allow Macao service suppliers to distribute in Guangdong Province fixed/mobile telephone service
--	--

<sup>159</sup> Covering the liberalization measures provided in CEPA, Supplement X, and Guangdong Agreement, and the newly added liberalization measures in this Agreement.

<sup>160</sup> Covering the liberalization measures provided in CEPA and Supplement IV.

	cards which can only be used in Macao (excluding mobile satellite phone service card)<sup>161</sup> 4. To allow contractual service providers employed by Macao service suppliers, in the mode of movement of natural persons, to provide the following telecommunications services in the Mainland<sup>162</sup>: <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1) Online data processing and transaction processing (confine to e-commerce business websites only);</li><li>2) Call centre services;</li><li>3) Internet access services.</li></ol>
--	---

---

<sup>161</sup> Covering the liberalization measures provided in CEPA Supplement VI; shall meet the requirements stipulated in the Memorandum of Understanding concerning the distribution of telephone cards in the Guangdong Province signed between the relevant Mainland and Macao telecommunications authorities.

<sup>162</sup> Covering the liberalization measures provided in CEPA Supplement X.